A new Sanda city ordinance to prohibit discrimination due to disabilities and enhance coexistence of all people (Sanda People with Disabilities Coexistence Ordinance) has been established.

Sanda city is working to eliminate discrimination due to disabilities. This ordinance has been established to help realize a harmonious society built on mutual respect where no one is discriminated against on the basis of disabilities.

The ordinance will go into effect on July 1, 2018 and aims to find solutions to the problem of discrimination as well as prevent discrimination before it occurs. The ordinance calls on all citizens, business establishments, and the city administration to work together to eliminate discrimination.

What is meant by "a person with disabilities?"

Not only those who have an official disability certificate but also all people who experience restrictions on their daily lives based on disabilities or societal barriers.

Who does the ordinance apply to?

All people in the city: profit and non-profit organizations, individuals and corporations, city administration, business establishments and individual citizens.

What is meant by "discrimination based on disabilities"?

- Unfair and discriminatory treatment: This consists of refusal to provide services or the provision of services only on certain conditions due to disabilities.
- Refusal to provide reasonable accommodations: This consists of refusal to provide reasonable accommodation after being requested by a person with disabilities, or after noticing the need for such accommodation

Consultation for People with Disabilities: "Kiite-Net"

Kiite-net provides consultation on various issues, such as "What exactly is reasonable accommodation?" "Is this discrimination?", etc.
